a. (C) The U. S. Attorney's Office in Chicago, which is handling the Kampiles case, requested this Office to conduct an audio countermeasures inspection of two offices. This request was made after the FBI informed the U. S. Attorney's Office that they were unable to conduct the inspections due to other priorities. We have obtained a favorable opinion from the Office of General Counsel relative to our providing this inspection, which will be conducted on 2 November.
